

FormanWatkins Recognized in 2016 Edition of Chambers USA

Forman Watkins & Krutz LLP is proud to announce that three of our partners were recognized in Chambers USA 2016, an annual publication of London-based Chambers and Partners. Included in this year's rankings are: Fred Krutz, W.G. Watkins, and Edwin Gault, for General Commercial Litigation. In the firm's 7th consecutive year, Forman Watkins was recognized as a Top Ranked Law Firm in General Commercial Litigation.

Among the peer review, research, and client questionnaires completed for Forman Watkins, one client stated, "They have done a fantastic job. The team is smart, focused, strategic and efficient," another client added, "I have been very impressed with them. They do an excellent job of coordinating their resources, and just did a really good job of strategically setting up our case." Our team is honored to be included in these rankings for yet another year and remain dedicated to be leaders in the industry as proven by Chambers' recognition.
