

New Jersey Team Collects Donations for Local Charity

A big thank you to our New Jersey office for collecting money and donations to buy warm clothing for those in need. Our team worked in conjunction with local charity organization, Lunch Break, to gather items for donation during cold winter months. We appreciate your generosity throughout the year but especially during the Holiday season!

