

Abdalla Obtains Partial Summary Judgment for Global Medical Device Company

Mary Clift Abdalla, as Mississippi counsel, successfully obtained partial summary judgment for a global medical device company dismissing the Plaintiff's trade secrets misappropriation claims, and preventing Plaintiff from seeking statutory damages or attorney's fees on copyright infringement claims. The team also obtained a ruling striking Plaintiff's expert witness reports, while denying Plaintiff's request to strike Defendant's expert report.