

FormanWatkins Attorneys Named to 2026 Louisiana Super Lawyers and Rising Stars Lists

Forman Watkins & Krutz LLP is pleased to announce that several of its attorneys have been selected for inclusion in the 2026 Louisiana Super Lawyers and Rising Stars lists, published by Thomson Reuters. These honors reflect a high level of professional achievement and recognition from peers within the legal community.

Super Lawyers identifies top attorneys across more than 70 practice areas through a comprehensive selection process that includes peer nominations, independent research, and detailed evaluations. The Rising Stars designation highlights exceptional early-career attorneys who are making a strong impact in their respective fields.

This year's selections highlight the depth and breadth of talent at FormanWatkins, as well as the Firm's ongoing dedication to providing strategic, results-driven counsel. The recognition also speaks to the collaborative culture that supports attorneys in delivering outstanding service to clients.

The Firm proudly recognizes the following attorneys:

2026 Louisiana Super Lawyers: Amy Maccherone, Charles Abbott, Michael Abraham, Michelle Roy, and Tim Gray.

2026 Louisiana Rising Stars: Margaret McLaughlin, Taylor Waxley, Whitney Antoine, and Peyton Smith.
