

FormanWatkins Partners Participate in the Mississippi Bar's Diversity Best Practices Workshop

FormanWatkins partner Malissa Wilson culminated her tenure as chair of the Mississippi Bar's Diversity Committee with a workshop bringing together thought leaders, law school representatives and c-suite diversity officers to discuss diversity, inclusion and equity best practices for attracting and retaining diverse talent at law firms. The half-day workshop featured D&I committee chairs from various Mississippi firms, including FWK D&I Chair, Caroline Upchurch, who spoke on the topic of What's Working & What's Not Working. The workshop also featured a session on rethinking summer law clerk program recruitment and a corporate D&I representatives roundtable discussion.
