

FormanWatkins Releases 2020 Pro Bono & Civic Engagement Report

FormanWatkins released its 2020 Pro Bono & Civic Engagement Report today. The Firm's pro bono efforts are led by our Pro Bono Committee, whose members include: Alison McMinn, Courtney Hunt, Erin Latuso, Julian Miller, Margaret McLaughlin, Mimi Arthur, Mitch McGuffey, Nicole Diesa, and Vernon McFarland. Thank you to all team members involved with these cases, it truly makes a difference! We're happy for you to share our mission, you may download a PDF by clicking here: FormanWatkins Pro Bono in Review_2020

FWK IN EDUCATION

Our team successfully filed a Due Process hearing against a local school district on behalf of an autistic student. DESERVING STUDENT HAS NOW RECEIVED INTENSIVE instruction in reading, math, language instruction, and social skills, providing the resources he needs to succeed. In addition to the positive prospects of this student and his family, this case will provide future lawyers to serve as education advocates for autistic students, through Forman Watkins' MC Law Education Program.
