

FormanWatkins Thanks Baker Hughes for Participating in our Diversity Pipeline Program

FormanWatkins recently welcomed counsel from Baker Hughes to participate in FormanWatkins' Diversity Pipeline Program. Regina Jones, Chief Legal Officer, and Amy Blumrosen, Senior Litigation Counsel, spoke to current students and recent graduates from Tougaloo College and Jackson State University about pursuing a career in the legal field. They shared their own experiences and offered advice on how to navigate law school and the legal profession with integrity and authenticity. This presentation was a continuation of FormanWatkins' Diversity Pipeline Program with students in the Reuben V. Anderson Pre-Law Program at Tougaloo College directed by Julian Miller.

