

Litigation

Our Litigation Practice is the foundation of our firm. FormanWatkins is nationally known and respected for our creative, aggressive and thoughtful approach to litigation in state and federal courts. We have always been at the forefront of utilizing technology in defending cases and are noted for our creative approaches to obtaining winning outcomes in difficult cases.

FormanWatkins attorneys are committed to passionately and relentlessly pursuing the absolute best outcome for our clients. We believe that each case is unique and there is no "cookie cutter" approach to litigation. Experience, integrity, passion, and a relentless pursuit of the best results for our clients are core values of our attorneys. We bring these traits to the forefront each day in every case, no matter the size. We strive to provide our clients with alternative strategies that ensure a winning solution for the issues at hand. From the traditional to the unique, we aggressively and intelligently pursue winning results.

Like you, we understand that the definition of winning varies from case to case, based on the facts and laws applicable. That is why we partner and collaborate with our clients throughout the litigation process. It is important to FormanWatkins that our clients have the ability to timely communicate with their counsel to manage the ebb and flow of the litigation. It is through this collaborative effort that FormanWatkins provides the very best outcome for the case you present to us. Our long history of experience spans all types of litigation in nearly every state in the country.

If you would like to know more, we are happy to provide client references.